Re: defense of Epstein against attacks by Salandria and Fred Cook.
SM " . . . [Ed.] has made a gigantic contribution to our knowledge of what went on behind the WC's closed doors, and single-handily forced the reopening of responsible dicussion of the WR."

SM notes in passing that HW's WWI would have gottern no attention if it was not fortunate enough to have appeared w/ Inquest. Allowed WW I to be reviewed in tandem with Inquest.

SM notes she is tired of all the back-biting between critics in the East. This is not the case on the Coast, "thank heavens." And she "is sick ofg playing referee and conciliator . . ." reference to all the feuding bet/ HW, Lane and others.

Re: Comments on a long face-to-face with HW. She tried to get him to modify his behavior. This was a friendly effort to improve his effectie-ness. He never listened.

Ray Marcus and life visited her in NY; they had dinner.
