

Honors 470

Below is a list (hardly definitive) of prominent people in our national politics who suspected that President Kennedy was the victim of a conspiracy, and said so either publicly or in private.

President Lyndon B. Johnson

President Richard Nixon

Jackie Kennedy

Bobby Kennedy

J. Edgar Hoover

Senator Richard Russell (Warren Commission) Richard Schweiker and Gary Hart(both of the Senate Intelligence Committee).

Seven of the eight congressmen on the House Assassinations Committee and the committee's chief counsel, Robert Blakey.

JFK associates Joe Dolan, Fred Dutton, Richard Goodwin, Peter Hamil, Frank Mankiewicz, Larry O'Brien, Kenny O'Donnell, and Walter Sheridan

James Rowley, head of the Secret Service in 1963.

Roy Kellerman, Secret Service agent who was in the Kennedy limo in Dallas

CIA Director John McCone

William Buckley, America's leading conservative editor