8. Clark to SAC, Dallas, 2/24/'64 100-10461-3769 Both Hoover and Rankin are dismissive of Marina's account re: the Nixon matter. Apparently Hoover wanted a 24 hr surveillance on Marina. . . (did Rankin agree)? Because Warren was not in favor of this policy.. .

9. Key here Pollock piece on Marina and Commission. What is of great interest is Marina's flattering feelings about Warren and their interaction . . .Warren was almost the good and gentle favorite uncle. . .*

10. Reviewed.. . might be useful on Nixon - Oswald as assailant } so say Marina

11. Marina places the rifle in the Paine's garage 2 weeks before the shooting. That is, Marina noticed the weaponBut Ruth and her husband did not???? She observed the rifle in a blanket in the garage. . .Ruth Paine and husband did not notice the weapon. . . .Interesting, because they were both Quakers and phobic about weapons. . .

It was during this session that question was raised: should WC release Marinaand drop all surveillance. Russell said no. Rankin agreed. Otherwise Marina would slip across the border into Mexico . . .(like a cow can do mathematics was more likely).

Impossible to image that this rifle remained in the Paine garage unnoticed by Ruth or her husband. .Both practicing Quakers and staunch opponents of fire arms in the hands of civilians. . . p. 2 Michael Paine goes on and on about using the garage but never noticing the rifle in the blanket. . .(review), Here Marina to the rescue. . . .
