On March 3, 1964, informant advised as follows:

(E&R/AAB) MARINA with presumably GEORGE BOUHE, ANNA and ANNA's son named PAUL? General conversation in which GEORGE spoke to the child concerning his breakfast. GEORGE complimented MARINA on the house and said he likes same. GEORGE told MARINA that he does all work in his home now and likes it. GEORGE spoke concerning JEANNE DE MOHRENSCHILDT and the fact that she worked or works for Neiman-Marcus. GEORGE also apparently mentioned concerning trip by DE MOHRENSCHILDTs. MARINA spoke concerning THORNE, who apparently told her that there was no hurry. MARINA also said that she has no money. GEORGE again spoke on DE MOHRENSCHILDT, who is a very pleasant fellow and who apparently gave GEORGE his card, saying that should GEORGE ever need FBI in Washington, to call him, DE MOHRENSCHILDT (not too clear). GEORGE mentioned that he reads the "New York Times", which is the best source of information which he has. He also mentioned that he has heard somewhere that MARINA had some sort of a lover.
