Dear Mr. Warren:

I have recently been informed that it was you who appointed Mr. Norman Redlich as legal advisor to the President's Commission investigating the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Since Mr. Redlich has a number of communistic-front affiliations I wonder why you had to select this particular man when there were thousands upon thousands of better qualified lawyers whose reputations were without blemish.

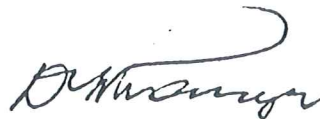

It was your responsibility to engage or approve of a man whose background was beyond question.

Will you be good enough and explain the reason for your strange selection.

Further, would you be good enough and not indicate a "stock answer" to one of your secretaries.

Your reply will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,

Dr. W. Langer
