Attached hereto is a copy of Miss Scobey's proposed transcript for her television appearance in New York.

I talked with her briefly when she brought it by the office and she indicated that she wanted to especially bring out three things in her appearance:

1. She wanted to say something agreeable to the Senator in regard to his participation in the work of the Commission
2. She wanted to bring out the weaknesses and distortions in Mr. Lane's method of analyzing the Commission's work since Mr. Lane is also to be a member of this panel.
3. She wanted to include her closing remarks as a plea to President Johnson and Senator Robert Kennedy to release the autopsies in the National Archives to dispel Lane's contentions in regard to the existence of a conspiracy.

Miss Scobey is to be staying at the apartment of Mrs. Felder Heflin here in Washington until early tomorrow morning. She requested that Senator Russell, if possible, call her sometime today between 4 & 7:30 after she has had an opportunity to review this transcript. I told her that I did not know what time the Senator would get out of committee but that between 4 and 7 either the Senator or some member of the staff would be in touch with her. The telephone number is 521-3093.

Each of these distortions is insignificant in itself. They are chosen at random. But one or more per page, multiplied by the number of pages, add up to something in the realm of fiction.
