

The Ocean Post

S.S.ROTTERD.M

il...RCH 31,1977

C.PT.IN: A.H.L.G...Y

DOMESTIC NEWS

P.Li BE.CH, FLORIDA: George De Hohrenschildt (65), a Russian born proffesor described as a crucial witness in the Congressional probe of the President Kennedy assassination, was found shet to death Tuesday, an apparent suicide after learning the investigators wanted to question him.

as in 1975, with violent crimes declining for the first time, but larceny rising sharply due to the thefts of citizens band radios, the FBI reported Wednesday.

W.SHINGTON: The Coast Guard said Wednesday, it released a Soviet trawler, which has been seized for fishing violations, because the State Department visit to Moscow.

INTERNATIONAL NEVS

T.O HORE DIE, CRASH TOLL NOW 577
S.NT. CRUZ DE TENERIFE (UPI): Two survivors of Sunley's collision between two jumbo jets died Wednesday, as investigators from three countries probed for new clues in the worst disaster in civil aviation history. One survivor died in a Santa Cruz hospital and the other in a Mercy flight, rushing the injure back to the US, bringing the death toll to 577. merican, Dutch and Spanish investigators continued to question witnesses and analyze tape recordings of airport radio contacts just before the collision of a KIM 747 and a Pan an 747. Dutch and Spanish officials said Tuesday, the KLE pilot had not obtained final electrance before his plane rearred down the foggy run way and slammed into the side of the Pan an jet at 186 miles an hour. William Haley, thief of United States National Transport Safety Board team, assisting Spanish authorities. Spanish and the Spani assisting Spanish authorities, said, he could not comment on the Spanish and Dutch statements. Purported framents of the control tower tape, but not the full contents, have been reported by Spanish newspaper. One newspaper said Wednesday, one crucial section was transcribed as follows, it was translated from Spanish; KIM: "KIM ready for take off"; Control to KIM: " maintain holding position". Control tower to Pan An: "have you left the runway?"; Pan An, "No"; Control to Pan An, " Continue, advise us when the runway is clear". The newspaper said, the KIM plane then started the take of run without getting final clearance. Twelve badly burned American tourists, swabed in United States Air Force sheets, were carried off in a Mercy flight from Canary Islands Wednesday, to begin receiving the best burn care the military can offer. Dr. Basil Pruitt, head of the Burn Center, told newsmen that three of the 12 were in He said, the prognosis for the three was very guarded. The 12 were among the he said, the prognosis for the three was very guarded. The 12 were among the nest scriously injured of about 70 persons, who survived Sunday's collision of two Junbo 747 jets at Santa Cruz de Toverife in the Canary Islands. Two other survivors died, one of themaboard the US air Force's C-141 Starlifter, along with two victims, who could walk were taken to Brooke army Medical Center. Which contains a world renowed hurn treatment center, set up during Center, which contains a world renowed burn treatment center, set up during the second world war for injured soldiers. "I feel good to be alive", said Edward Hess(39), a good broker from Phoenix Arizona. He was one of those

MOSCOW: Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev rejected both of President Carter's disarrament proposals and presented a new Krenlin offer on arms deductions, a disappointed United States Secreatry of State Cyrus Vance said Vednesday. I am disappointed, Vance told a news conference, after the failure of his first mission to Moscow as Secretary of State and the first major diplomatic defeat for the Carter Administration. We have failed to make progress in the most essential of all area, he added.

M.PUTO, MOZ.MBIQUE: Soviet President Mikelai Pedgorny continued talks Wednesday with Mozaibique officials, warning that Western help to South Africa, to develop a nuclear weapons capability was, in his words, inchissable.

KINSHAS. LATRE: The key copper mining center of Kolwezi was reported calm vedhesday, but invading forces were reported to be advancing slowly but surely through the former K tanga province, due to the disarray of Zaire troops. The US Ribussy reported that 152 Americans still are in the embattle province and that there were no immediate plans for further evacuation.

BONN: Chance Flor Helmut Schridt said Tednesday, that West Germany has done than any other Western nation during the last two years to stimulate employment around the world.

LOFDON: A TWA'S Boeing 747 with 360 passen ers and crew ran off the run way at Lendon hirport Jednesday and stuck in the sud. The main take off runway was blocked for half an hour, while the TMA plane front wheel, which mired of the runway as the plane turned for takeoff, was pulled on the rund. There were no injuries.

BETRUT: Israeli backed Christian gunnen Welnesday attacked the leftist held village of Taybe, two niles from the Israeli border, leftist and rightist reports assid. The sketchy reports described fighting as heavy and said, there was annual mount of killed and wounded.

return the first and youths demonstrated in the occupied west bank Wednesday on the first anniversary of violent protests against the exproprietor of arab lands in Fsr.el. Security forces fired tear gas grenades at crowds of arab youths in leading West Bank towns.

FEL AVIV: Israel will try two West Germans, and three Arabs in a closed door military tribunal, on charges of trying to shoot down an El-Al jetliner 15 months ago, at an unidentified airport, believed to be Nairobi in Kenya.

BONN, WEST GERMANY: West Germany protested to Israel Velneslay over the secret detention of two Vest Germans for a year, a Foreign Office spokesman it had not been informed of the detention, as it should have been of two

LOPDON: Palace sources said Vednesday, Prince Charles hardly knows Princess Harie strid of Luxenburg, whom a London newspaper said, the heir to the British throne wants to harry. In the Grand Duchy, a Government spokesman said, he had no information, no comment and no official reaction to the PARIS: President Valery Giscard D'estain, approved a new Cabinet Wednesday, headed by outgoing P.H. Raymond Barre, but minus the key political figures, who hal swung so much weight in the previous Barre Cabinet.

eaturing the nan, who piloted Sundays tradic flight to the Canary Island, an Airline spekeshan said. The advertisement featured KLM pilot Jacob Veldhuyzen Van Zanten (50).

FOR SPORT RESULTS, JETTHER FORECAST AND STOCK LARVET UOTATION, PLEASE CONSULT THE BUILD IN BOARD ON MAIN DEUR SQUARE

The respect of the property of the second of