Johnson Backs Warren Report As Thorough and Reasonable

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, President Johnson defended the access to it now.

on the subject since the commission became the target of a series of critical books and are series of critical books and articles, the President gave the cast doubt on the Warren repanel high marks for its "thor- port, it would be considered by ough study."

In answer to a question at Dr. James B. Rhoads, deputy his news conference, Mr. John archivist at the National Ar-

The commission concluded month.
that Lee Harvey Oswald acted These include all of the physialone in the slaying of President cal evidence considered by the alone in the slaying of President cal evidence considered by the Kennedy.

Mr. Johnson's statements came in response to a question about the 65 X-rays and photographs of President Kennedy's body turned over to the National Archives this week by the Kennedy family. He was asked why the material had not been turned over before, and why it will not be available to non-Government investigators for at least five years.

Cal evidence considered by the commission except Oswald's com

Nov. 4-| that Government agencies had

Warren Commission today, declaring that the evidence supports its conclusions about the assassination of President Kennedy.

In his first public statement try to be exploited and used without serving any good or of the subject since the commission today, declaring that the evidence supports its conclusions about the assassination of President Kennedy.

anybody turned up evidence to the proper authorities.

son said "I know of no evidence chives, said today that the mass that would in any way cause of Warren Commission evi-any reasonable person to have a dence delivered to the building doubt" about the commission's by the Justice Department last findings. [Question 12, Page Week would be available for 10.]

non-Government investigators for at least five years.

Mr. Johnson replied that the weapons to the archives within material "has been available to the Warren Commission affytime it wanted to see it" and