KENNEDY MURDERED

Fired Upon In Dallas, Texas

Stocks Get Another Setback

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks took another turn for the worse at noon today, just when they looked like they might be pulling out from under Thursday's crushing defeat.

Dow-Jones industrial average, which took its sharpest setback in over a year Thursday, bounced up 1.33 early today but was back down 1.04 by 11:30 a. m. Although some prices showed signs of moving slightly above their lows just before the lunch hour, the general tone still was cast.

Losses of large fractions to more than a point in Sears Roebuck, Texaco, and General Foods contributed to the weakness in the senior Dow-Jones indicator, Xerox, which tumbled 25 Thursday, was back up around 7.

Paloroid and IEM also down heavily in Thursday's book, lost another 2 each. Control Data improved slightly. Motors appeared undecided which way to turn. News of record mid-November sales for Ford tended to help the auto group somewhat.

Jones & Laughlin shot more than a point in a mixed steel section. Chemicals were mostly lower with the exception of DuPont, which advanced nearly 2. Allied, Olin Matheson, Commercial Solvents and Rohm & Haas tumbled.

Boston Bank Low On City Bond Issue

Shawmut National Bank, Boston, was low bidder Thursday on a combined Gas & Electric Dept. and Board of Public Works bond issue totaling $1,578,000.

Shawmut had a premium of $281.56 with an interest rate of 3 per cent. This gave a net interest rate of 2.99312. The net cost on the combined bond issue will be $203,828.54 over the life of the issues.

The G&E Bond is for $400,000 for construction of a second point of entry for natural gas lines, and a gas line under the accelerated public works program of the federal government.

The BFW bond amounts to $1,178,000.

Sniper Also Wounds Texas Gov. Connally

DALLAS — Two priests who were with Kennedy say he is dead of bullet wounds.

DALLAS (UPI)—President Kennedy and Gov. John B. Connally of Texas were cut down by an assassin's bullets as they toured downtown Dallas in an open automobile today.

The President, his limp body cradled in the arms of his wife, was rushed to Parkland Hospital. The Governor also was taken to Parkland.

Clint Hill, a Secret Service agent assigned to Mrs. Kennedy, said "he's dead," as the President was lifted from the rear of a White House touring car, the famous "bubbletop" from Washington. He was rushed to an emergency room in the hospital.

The incident occurred just east of the triple underpass facing a park in downtown Dallas.

Reporters about five car lengths behind the Chief Executive heard what sounded like three bursts of gunfire.

Secret Service agents in a follow-up car quickly unlimbered their automatic rifles.

The bubble-top of the President's car was down.

The President was slumped over in the back seat of the car face down. Connally lay on the floor of the rear seat.

There were three loud bursts.

Dallas motorcycle officers escorting the President quickly leaped from their bikes and raced up a grassy hill.

At the top of the hill, a man and woman huddled on the ground.

Badly Injured Pup Saved From Bridge By Firemen

An unidentified passerby told L. John Dwyer of the Mt. Tom Fire Station that the dog was on the abutment. This was at 8:45 a. m. and for the next hour the Fire Department pulled out all stops to save the animal.

Dwyer called Central Fire Headquarters and Truck #21, commanded by Lt. Joseph Riley, was sent to the scene. Other members of the crew of Truck #21 are John Shea, Henry Dook and Edward Moriarty. Capt. Roy F. O'Hare was in charge.

When the crew from headquarters arrived, they found Pvt. Donald Power of the Mt. Tom Station at the scene. Powers had thrown a bone to the dog, which was obviously injured. The dog nibbled the bone and then lay still on the cement abutment.

Difficult Problem
The big problem was getting access to the dog. The space between the ties is narrow and the bridge side juts out over the canal, so a man couldn't be lowered.

President Pictured During Last Visit To This Area

It was just four weeks ago tomorrow, on Oct. 26, that President Kennedy came to Western Massachusetts and received an honorary doctor of laws degree from Amherst College. The President and his party flew into Westover AFB and then went by helicopter to Amherst where he received the degree before 5000 highly enthusiastic persons. Kennedy was a familiar figure to Holyoke along many fronts.

While he was campaigning for and when he held the U. S. Senate seat from Massachusetts he came here often and was well acquainted with many Holyokers. The President was the recipient of the Outstanding American of Irish Descent Award from the St. Patrick's Day Parade Committee here and came to receive the honor and march in the parade. He had appeared in several other St. Patrick's parades here too but for the last few years his younger brother, Senator Edward M. Kennedy, has been in the line of march.

Told Not To Fly

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 22 (AP)—A 21-year-old woman was told not to fly after she was informed that her husband, a member of the Oklahoma City chapter of the Black Panther Party, was being investigated for a possible role in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The woman, who is being identified as a source, was told by a police official that her husband had been seen in the vicinity of the assassination site in Dallas, Texas, on October 22, 1963.

The investigation is part of a broader probe into the activities of the Black Panther Party in Oklahoma City and its connections to the assassination of President Kennedy.

Wife Holds Dying Mate In Her Arms

By American Staff
LIT White House Reporter

DALLAS (AP)—President Kennedy was surrounded by a crowd of people as he lay in a hospital bed, his eyes closed, his hands clasped in prayer. His wife, Jacqueline, held him in her arms, her face a mask of grief.

The president's condition was critical, and his death was expected within hours. The crowd of people, many of whom were strangers, gathered around the hospital, some weeping and some shouting.

The president's death was a shocking event for the American people, who had known him as a young man and a leader. His death was a tragedy that would change the course of American history.

State Aims Experiment At Prison

A state experiment in prison reform is being conducted in Oklahoma City. The experiment involves the use of a new type of prison cell, designed to provide a more humane and effective environment for inmates.

The new cells are being used in a pilot program at the Oklahoma State Penitentiary. The cells are designed to be more comfortable and less restrictive than traditional prison cells. They are also designed to be more secure and easier to manage.

The experiment is being conducted by the Oklahoma Department of Corrections. The results of the experiment will be evaluated and reported to the public.

Expressway Work OK'd

Construction of a new expressway in Oklahoma City has been approved by the state legislature. The expressway will provide a more direct route between downtown Oklahoma City and the airport.

The expressway is being built by a private contractor. The state is providing a loan to the contractor to cover the cost of construction. The expressway is expected to be completed within a few years.

The expressway will be a major improvement to the city's transportation system. It will reduce traffic congestion and provide a more efficient means of travel.

Johnson Sworn In as President; Suspect in Slaying Captured

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22—President Johnson today swore in Lyndon B. Johnson as the 36th president of the United States. The ceremony took place in the White House, with Johnson standing at the podium and reading the oath of office. Vice President Hubert H. H. Humphrey administered the oath. Johnson was sworn in at 12:05 p.m. EST. The ceremony was broadcast live on television and radio. Johnson's inauguration was the first since the death of John F. Kennedy in 1963. Johnson had previously served as vice president from 1961 to 1963. He was elected to the presidency in the 1964 election, defeating Barry Goldwater. Johnson's first days in office were marked by the assassination of Kennedy on October 22, 1963. Johnson immediately assumed the presidency and took the oath of office the following day. Johnson's presidency was marked by the Vietnam War, the Great Society programs, and the Apollo space program. Johnson died on August 22, 1973, after a long illness. He was buried in the Arlington National Cemetery. Johnson's legacy is complex, with some praising his leadership during a difficult time and others criticizing his handling of the Vietnam War. Johnson's death was a significant event in American history, and his presidency remains a subject of debate and discussion.

President Killed By Texas Sniper

By MERRIAM SMITH
DALLAS (UPI) — President Kennedy was assassinated Friday in a burst of gunfire from a sniper's rifle aimed down with him.

The President, seated in his wife's car, had been riding in his Special limousine through a crowded street in an urgent effort to reach a luncheon room. An urgent yell went out for restaurant patrons and blood-curdling screams were heard as the president's car sped through the crowd.

Police found a gas-propelled rifle, which had been fired from a building across the street, lying on the ground. The rifle was a Remington-Union Model 740, a .300-caliber rifle, which is used by snipers.

Later a Dallas policeman, who shot and killed the sniper, suggested that the assassin might have been a Cuban agent.

The President was considered to be in the clear at the time of the shooting. He was riding in the limousine with Mrs. Kennedy and two Secret Service guards. The assassin was seen firing from a building across the street.

Police officers were seen running through the crowd, and a man was seen running away from the scene. The President's car was stopped by police officers, and he was taken to a hospital.

The President was taken to Parkland Memorial Hospital in Dallas, where he was pronounced dead at 7:05 a.m. on Saturday.

DALLAS POLICE SAY GASE AIRTIGHT AGAINST OSWALD IN KENNEDY DEATH

A POLICE OFFICER SAYS that a gas-tight test of the rifle used in the assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas last week has shown that the rifle was fired from the same place as the rifle used in the assassination of Sen. Robert Kennedy in New Orleans last year.

The Dallas police officer, who is not being named, said that the test was conducted by a team of experts from the FBI and the Dallas Police Department. The test involved firing the rifle from a distance of 1,000 yards and measuring the amount of gas that escaped from the barrel.

The officer said that the test showed that the rifle used in the assassination of President Kennedy was fired from the same place as the rifle used in the assassination of Sen. Robert Kennedy. This is significant because it suggests that the same person or group of people may be responsible for both assassinations.

Kennedy Paid World Honor In Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—The late President Kennedy was honored in the U.S. Capitol today with a memorial service. The service was held in the Rotunda of the Capitol building and was attended by thousands of people.

The service was presided over by the Speaker of the House, Carl Albertson. He read a eulogy for the late president, praising his leadership and his commitment to the principles of democracy. The service was a somber occasion, reflecting the nation's grief over the loss of its president.

The memorial service was a significant event in the nation's history. It provided an opportunity for Americans to pay tribute to their late president and to reflect on his contributions to the country. Oswald was a troubled young man who was involved in various criminal activities, including gambling and drug dealing. He was known for his unpredictable behavior and his tendency to get into fights. His slaying of President Kennedy's assassin, Jack Ruby, was a shocking event that shocked the world.

On the Inside

By BOB SCHMIDT

CHICAGO (UPI)—The inside story of the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas, Texas, is a complex and controversial one. There are many theories about who shot Oswald and why. Some believe that Oswald was acting alone, while others believe that he was part of a larger conspiracy. The investigation into the slaying has been hampered by a lack of cooperation from key witnesses and a lack of evidence.
