On November 25, 1963, Assistant Director A. H. BELMONT advised Inspector JAMES R. MALLEY that the Associated Press in New York had a photograph that bore the number on the bottom, "PK 61345 SPP," with the note, "Editor, this is a blowup of DN 2, making images larger DN 5, Dallas, 11/22." <sup>To JHC</sup>

According to Mr. BELMONT, in this photograph there was a man who appeared to be standing in the doorway of the Texas School Book Depository who resembled OSWALD.
