Hippies Support Garrison

Major Edgard C. Bundy, director of the Church League of America, Wheaton, Ill., reports concerning Mr. Jim Garrison, district-attorney-general, New Orleans: "Garrison has become a hero in all the hippy newspapers. There are 37 of them being published weekly from coast to coast with a combined circulation of 850,000. They have formed a syndicate known as the Underground Press Syndicate. They are giving him big space and backing his charges and his appearances."
