

WALTER JACOBSON

Strange Story Linking Ruby To Assassination

By Walter Jacobson
Special to The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 10 (AP)—A woman who says she was in the company of a man who shot President John F. Kennedy in Dallas, Texas, on Nov. 22, 1963, has been identified as Ruby. The woman, who is now in St. Louis, says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination. She says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination.

The woman, who is now in St. Louis, says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination. She says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination.

The woman, who is now in St. Louis, says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination. She says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination.

The woman, who is now in St. Louis, says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination. She says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination.

The woman, who is now in St. Louis, says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination. She says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination.

The woman, who is now in St. Louis, says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination. She says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination.

The woman, who is now in St. Louis, says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination. She says she was in the company of a man who she says was in Dallas on the day of the assassination.