NONMILITARY WOUND from the spinal cord," Colonel

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 8 the left cheek." (UPI)—An Ohio National Guard official said today that a "fragmentary report" showed that one of 10 students wounded on the Kent State University campus on Monday was struck by a "nonmilitary bullet."

Col. J. F. P. McCapp. admin. chark. He was discharged to the left cheek."

Thomas Mackenzie, 21 years old, of Richboro, Pa., was admitted to St. Thomas Hospital in Akron with a bullet wound campus on Monday was struck by a "nonmilitary bullet."

Col. J. F. P. McCapp. admin. chark. He was discharged to istrative assistant to the Ohio day. Adjutant General, said the re-cludes that one of the patients that one of the wounded stu-wounded at Kent State Univer-dents had not been struck by sity had a gunshot wound in a .30-caliber bullet, the type the back of the neck, one inch used by the National Guard.

IS REPORTED AT KENT McCann said. "The bullet entered the neck one inch from the spinal cord and exited from y a "nonmilitary bullet." cials said exited through his Col. J. E. P. McCann, admin-cheek. He was discharged to-

Adjutant General, said the port had been made by the National Guard's Inspector Kent, a member of the Kent State faculty, also said "Medical evaluation con-evidence he has seen indicated