Rockefeller U. Campus Dispute Gentle

By ARNOLD H. LUBASCH

at Rockefeller University here our young people and give them

"There tends to be more reason behind the activities," according to Dr. Frederick Seitz, president of the prestigious scientific institution, which over-62d and 68th Streets.

pus's 15 acres of austerely tain campus dissent at home. modern structures, old ivy-covered buildings, stately sycamores and colorful tulips.

plained yesterday that most of efeller, the board chairman. them represented "the great Mr. Rockefeller, appearin middle ground who want things shirtsleeves in the spring sun-versity community who have done through democratic proc-shine, told the gathering that expressed strong hopes for an

"I hope we can get our local with public issues. He said that Congressman, Edward Koch, to the university's board of trus-Political activism has flared come on campus to meet with tees would be expanded to inwithout igniting the turmoil advice on how they can produced," Dr. Seitz said in his spadrawn from the faculty and city and nation.

city and nation.

cur young people and give the clude two younger members advice on how they can produced," Dr. Seitz said in his spadrawn from the faculty and city and nation.

city and nation.

office adorned with signed lith.

The Monday meeting was office adorned with signed lith.

Concern Is Expressed

looks the East River between bers and university employes asked to address the dissenters. have joined students in expressmunity, gathered on a grassy Noting that the unieversity's mall outside the administration that the issue had become polenrollment was limited to a building Monday afternoon to itical small, select, mature group of hear members of the board of Tur graduate students, Dr. Seitz ex-trustees, including David Rock-the board of trustees issued a he welcomed individual concern early peace in Southeast Asia."

ographs by Picasso, Singer and part of an all-day program, other moderns. pants as a strike, that resulted from an earlier mass meeting Some younger faculty mem- at which Mr. Rockefeller was

By a vote of 476 to 40, a Peace placards, mass meet- ing concern over the expansion campus plebiscite urged the ings, vigils and petitions ap- of warfare into Cambodia and university to vote its 63,000 peared this week amid the cam- the use of armed troops to con- shares of General Motors stock for a consumer proposal pro-A crowd of 300, roughly 20 moted by Ralph Nader, but the per cent of the university com-trustees decided to abstain in the proxy vote on the ground

> Turning to the war protest, statement that each member Mr. Rockefeller, appearing in "joins with all those in the uni-