WILLIAM J. WALEMAN, Vice President, Klein's Sporting Goods, Inc., 4540 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, made available for review records of his firm regarding the purchase, sale, and inventory control of merchandise handled by that concern.

Microfilm consisting of photographs of various business documents were reviewed including a reel of microfilm identified as:

"Filmfill number 83
269688-270598
General Files"

Among other business documents contained on this microfilm was a photograph of one Klein's Sporting Goods "ORDER BLANK" bearing a stamped date of March 18, 1968, on transaction number 270502 showing the purchase of one Italian carbine, 6.5, W/4X scope, Klein's control number VC 836, serial number C 2763 which was shipped to the purchaser on March 20, 1968.

This "ORDER BLANK" identified the purchaser as one A. HEDDLE, P.O. Box 2915, Dallas, Texas.

This reel also contained a photograph of one envelope postmarked Dallas, Texas, dated March 12 (year indistinguishable). The envelope is addressed to "Klein's-Dept. 358, Washington Street, Chicago 6, Illinois". The upper left hand corner contains a return address of "A. Heddle, P.O. Box 2915, Dallas, Texas." Covering the lower left hand portion of the envelope is a small advertisement of Klein's Sporting Goods apparently clipped from a publication. This advertisement contains the following information inserted in the spaces provided thereon:

"Bulk Item Nos.: C20-J 750"

"Enclosed is: $19.95 (portion indistinguishable)"
