Dear Miss Meagher:

We regret that our reply to your letter of September 12 has been delayed. You should be able to get copies of "Assassination of a President", the reprint from the New York Times, at any of the better bookshops. It is not, however, a paperback book in the ordinary sense. It was originally included as a supplement with our THE KENNEDY YEARS, but is now sold separately at $1.50 a copy. If you have further trouble in finding it, we shall be glad to fill your order.

We have given some editorial thought to your very interesting project for a subject index to the Warren Report material. This, however, seems to us too special a project for a general trade publisher with so selective a list as ours. As to your longer project, the comparative study, it is difficult for us to know whether we would be interested until we know more about the form it would take, the length, etc.

Thank you nonetheless for letting us know about it.

Sincerely yours,

Marshall A. Best
