Dear Miss Meagher:

Thank you for your letter of September 24 concerning the possibility of our publishing your subject index to the Warren Report and Hearings. We cannot but agree with you that such an index would be ~~both~~ useful for those seeking to use the lengthy reports and volumes. Furthermore, it appears to us that this is something that should be made available rather rapidly to have its greatest value and continuing value. It also needs to have some careful work done by an editor.

Our present schedule is such that we could not take on any work of this kind for over a year. I am sure that this would not be to your liking, and as I have indicated above not in the best interest of scholars in this respect. Much as we appreciate your writing to us and the recommendations of The Council on Library Resources and the H. W. Wilson Company, we find that we must with regret tell you that we cannot consider publication at this time. We are returning to you the contents outline which you sent.

With our best wishes for a speedy and successful publication, we remain.

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Frances T. Ottemiller
Director
