Dear Vince:

Judging by what I know of your menstrual cycle, yet another of your finds of "one of the most sincere and brave persons in the world" was somewhat overdue. Your communication announcing the happy recurrence of the biological phenomenon restores my confidence in your Fallopian tubes.

Regards,

Hamchen

P.S. As for the Government's forthcoming "choice of whom to destroy," I am ready with a wreath for the funeral procession--a wreath which, incidentally, I have been stuck with ever since your dramatic account of your meeting with Cohen.

P.P.S. What's the matter with your professional grading proficiency? I had thought Garrison to have achieved the ultimate professional achievement when, a year ago, he had The Assassination "solved" and the assassins and plotters as good as convicted. Did you expect--and actually even register--a professional improvement upon that?
