ONE-DAY TEXAS TOUR EYED

BJ Sees Kennedy Dallas Visit

By KATH SHULTON, Staff Writer

President Kennedy may visit Dallas in a major Texas cities this summer, Vice President B. Johnson said during his whirlwind visit in Texas. The vice president said he hopes President Kennedy's schedule will permit him to attend a luncheon in Fort Worth, a dinner in Dallas, an afternoon tea in San Antonio and a dinner in Houston day visit to Texas in the near future.

Mr. Johnson mentioned the possibility of the presidential visit during an hour-long session with executives of The Times Herald and KILLIAM FM and TV. Today afternoon.

reception, a crowd of nearly 2,000 jammed the Crystal Ballroom of the Baker Hotel to hear Vice President Johnson lash out at vociferous critics of the government.

Before shaking hands for nearly an hour, the vice president said he had not come to "say anything ugly" about anyone. "My heart is not filled with fear or hate or hypocrisy" he said.

SCORES DETRACTORS

"I see some people who are filled with hate and fear and hypocrisy and I say 'God forgive them'" he said to cheers from the Democrats assembled.

"I sympathize with these few who are in the minority. If they think this country is in as bad shape as they say it is, if they think our government is stupid and disloyal, well, I wonder why they agree to stay here anyway?" he said.

He said the President of the United States is like a pilot and the election is when the nation picks an airplane and a pilot for the next four years.

COMMON DANGER

"Once you pick him, and you're flying across the water in bad weather, don't go up and open the door and try to knock him in the head. He's the only pilot you have and if the plane goes down, you go with it."

"At least wait until next November before you shoot him down."
