Marina Moves

Tuesday was moving day for the Kenneth Jess Porters—and they said they couldn't be happier.

"How would you like living in a glass house for all the world to see?" said Mrs. Marina Porter, who before her marriage was the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald, named by the Warren Commission as the assassin of President John Kennedy.

Dressed in checked capri pants and a smudged white blouse, Mrs. Porter was directing the four moving men who were placing the Porters' possessions aboard a truck for the trip from Dallas, Tex., to Greenville, 45 miles to the northeast.

The Porters had lived in their Dunstan Lane home since their marriage last year. They had their first child on July 3. Mrs. Porter had two children by Oswald.
