On September 8, 1964, Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, telephonically advised SAC J. GORDON SHANKLIN that he had received a call from an individual who identified himself as CARL SCHREIBER from New York City, who gave his New York telephone number as EN 2-1006 Apartment 11-F. This individual was inquiring about the OSWALD-RUBY investigation and indicated that the President's Commission report would not be factual and that he was very much in favor of MARK LANE. According to Chief CURRY, this individual stated he was a disabled war veteran and also claimed he was the general counsel for MARK LANE. According to Chief CURRY, this man rambled on about the assassination and appeared to be trying to pump Chief CURRY about the investigation.

Chief CURRY was of the opinion this individual was intoxicated and Chief CURRY insisted he did not give this individual any information.

The files of the Dallas Office reflect no information identifiable with the above-named CARL SCHREIBER.
