Mrs. PENNY PEARSON, 7317 Davenport, advised she and her husband have resided at this address for three years. She said that ROBERT OSWALD and his wife VADA lived next door to them at 7313 Davenport from the time of their occupancy three years ago until the OSWALDs moved in about March, 1963. Mrs. PEARSON said she believes the OSWALDs lived at the address two years or longer prior to the PEARSONS moving in the neighborhood.

Mrs. PEARSON said further that ROBERT OSWALD's brother, LEE OSWALD, lived with the ROBERT OSWALDs for a period of about six weeks in May or June, 1962. She said she or her husband actually never met LEE OSWALD but she did meet his wife, name not recalled, who spoke very little English. Mrs. PEARSON said she recalls the LEE OSWALDs had a small girl at that time who was just a few months old.

Mrs. PEARSON said from conversation with VADA OSWALD at that time that this person told her that LEE OSWALD had formerly worked in New Orleans for an import-export company after he got out of the Marine Corps. Mrs. PEARSON said she recalls VADA OSWALD saying that LEE apparently got in with some wrong people, meaning Communists, in New Orleans and went to Russia. Mrs. PEARSON said she recalls VADA OSWALD saying that after LEE had been in Russia for maybe two years that he became disillusioned and returned to the United States. Mrs. PEARSON said she believes that he returned to the United States just prior to living with his brother for the above-mentioned period of time in May or June, 1962. Mrs. PEARSON said further that she recalls the conversation with ROBERT OSWALD at a later date at which time he said LEE had moved somewhere and was working for an unknown company in Fort Worth. Mrs. PEARSON said she then recalls hearing from conversation with either ROBERT or VADA that LEE had moved to Dallas, where he was employed by some type of company which had something to do with language, and was employed because he could speak Russian. She said she does not know what company he was supposed to have been employed by at that time.

Mrs. PEARSON said that ROBERT OSWALD's mother is a practical nurse and she does not know where the mother now resides but believes she possibly resides in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. PEARSON said she had only seen LEE OSWALD from a distance in the yard at the time he stayed with his brother and sister-in-law in Fort Worth. Mrs. PEARSON advised she had no
