DAVID L. DATE, Officer, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised that on November 22, 1963, he was assigned alone in Car 32 to patrol Districts 24 and 25. He advised at the time of the assassination he was on Benton Drive in North Dallas and was dispatched to the intersection of Stemmons Expressway and Inwood Road, where he was instructed to cut off all traffic and keep the intersection open for emergency vehicles. He advised he stayed at that location about ten to fifteen minutes, when he was dispatched to the Texas School Book Depository, where he remained until approximately 4:00 PM.

Officer DATE advised he definitely did not pass the intersection of Beckley and Zang's Boulevard in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas at any time that day; did not drive by 1026 North Beckley Street, and did not know EARIENE ROBERTS or anyone else at that address.
