Ballistics Expert in Sirhan Case Says Bullets Have Deteriorated

Special to The New York Times

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 17—the group will try to answer Questions concerning the pres- is whether the evidence has ent condition of ballistics evi-deteriorated enough to make dence were raised today at the retesting impossible. second day of hearings in the The hearings this week are court-ordered re-examination of intended to establish that all the assassination of Senator the evidence listed in the plan, Robert F. Kennedy.

was in charge of the technical that struck the other victims, investigation in 1968, said that is still in custody. bullets used as evidence against Proponents of the "second to ballistics evidence, valid con-bullets. clusions cannot be drawn from Mr. Wolfer's testimony is any retesting of evidence.

Second Gun Issue

stage of a plan, approved by is the same evidence he tested.

During his testimony, Mr. Angeles Superior Court, to de-Wolfer has had trouble recall the California Democratic Pres- later, I do not recall." idential primary.

wants to make a documentary say are vital to the new tests. on the assassination investigation, and Paul Schrade, a former official of the United Automobile Workers who was one of five other persons yourself for overtime pay. of five other persons wounded for overtime pay. in the shooting.

Next Monday, a panel of seven firearms experts is scheduled to begin independent retesting here of 20 ballistics exhibits used in the Sirhan trial. One of the first questions which includes Mr. Sirhan:s .22-DeWayne A. Wolfer, chief caliber pistol, eight spent car-forensic chemist of the Los Antridges from the gun, Senator geles Police Department, who Kennedy's clothing and bullets Sirhan B. Sirhan, the convicted gun theory" maintain that the assassin, appear to have deteri-bullet that hit the Senator in orated because of oxidation the neck and another bullet and handling since he first that struck William Weisal, one tested them seven years ago. of the other victims, were not Attorneys for the Los Angeles fired from the same gun. They District Attorney's Office con-based this belief on apparent tend that, because of damage differences in markings on both meant to reconfirm what tests he performed in the original The hearings are the first ballistics evidence in custody investigation and whether the

During his testimony, Mr. termine whether a second gun, in addition to the Sirhan gun, was fired the night of June 5, 1968, when Senator Kennedy and record-keeping, he often was fatally shot in the Ambas-sador Hotel here after winning replied, "Today, seven years

Some attorneys have criti-The re-examination was cized Mr. Wolfer for not keep-granted on the request of the ing more detailed records of CBS television network, which bis investigation, which they