THE DEATH LI

WHO KILLED KENNEDY?

Coincidence or cover-up?

DAMNING new evidence about the killing of President Kennedy would have been disclosed—if twenty-six people had been able to tell what they knew.

None of these people is now able to tell. All are dead.

They died between November, 1963 and last February. Statistically, the odds against all these potential witnesses dying in this time are astronomical. It is almost as though there were some dark and deadly plot to eliminate them.

But certainly if they were alive to testify before the new U.S. Senate Select Committee now inquiring afresh into the assassination, their evidence could be sensational.

The Committee is reassessing the 1964 findings of the Warren Commission which carried out the original investigation.

This is what happened to the 26 people.

Karyn Kupcinet, 23 of Chicago, gave a long distance telephone operator two days before the assassination and screamed that Kennedy was to be murdered.

Two days after the assassination Karyn was found dead in her apartment—murdered by persons unknown.

Mrs. Earlene Roberts was the landlady of Lee Harvey Oswald. She told the Warren Commission that when Oswald returned to his dies after he was said to have killed the President, she seemed to be waiting for someone.

It was never made clear who.

Mrs. Roberts had a fatal heart attack in January, 1966.

William Whaley was the taxi driver who took Oswald back to his digs after Kennedy's assassination. He could have been called for further questioning.

Whaley died in a Dallas car crash in March, 1964.

Bill Chesbee was a Dallas businessman who claimed to have information linking Oswald with Jack Ruby before Ruby got into Dallas police custody and shot Oswald (Warren decided Oswald and Ruby were strangers).

Chesbee had a fatal heart attack and died in March, 1964.

Tom Howard was one of Jack Ruby's lawyers and presumably knew his client well.

Howard had a fatal heart attack in March, 1964.

Ruby died of cancer in 1965, two years after his arrest for shooting Oswald.

Journalists Bill Hovet and Jim Koethe had interviewed Howard about Ruby.

Hovet was shot dead in April, 1964. Koethe in September, 1964.

Reporter Beverly Keggan interviewed Jack Ruby in jail.

Dorothy was found

Is it true that Lee Harvey Oswald was the lone assassin of President John Kennedy in Dallas on November 22, 1963? If so, what can explain the later deaths—often violent—of so many people who might be connected with the assassination? Coincidence or cover-up? Here we bring from the shadows more for you to study in one of the most baffling murder stories of all time.

'1,000 more died'

ONE man believes the total death toll in the 'cover-up' after the Kennedy assassination is nearly one thousand.

The list published here today "is only a tip of the iceberg," says top U.S. researcher Penn Jones.

"I have a list of 130 suspicious deaths. And even that is only a fraction," he says.

Jones, who specializes in investigating the deaths of persons connected with the Kennedy affair, believes the assassination was the key to a coup by the U.S. Right-wing Establishment.

"The country was taken over by secret people," he says. "A military and big business elite who dominated the Pentagon and the CIA."

The coup led to the chambers of Vietnam, the increase of CIA influence, and, ultimately, to Watergate.

On November 22 not only was Kennedy assassinated but America changed hands.

Research is going on in Britain too, by the Assassination Committee for the Truth, one of whose leaders, Mrs. Hazel Hild, of Leeds, says: "What is still outstanding has frightening implications for us all."

in bed in April, 1966, apparently of a ruptured blood vessel.

Sam Giancana was the Mafia boss who is said to have been called in by the CIA to help to assassinate Castro—a killing linked to the murder of Kennedy, claim some observers.

Giancana died from a bullet in the brain in August, 1976. Assassins unknown.

Johnny Roselli and Charles Nicoletti were Giancana's hit men.

Roselli's body floated ashore on a Florida beach in an oil drum in September, 1974. Nicoletti's bullet-riddled body was pulled from a sludge pit soon after.

witness of the Kennedy assassination, said he saw three cars parking behind the Texas School Book Depository (from where Oswald is said to have shot the President) just before the murder.

Bowers was killed when his car left the road in August, 1964.

James Worell, another eye-witness, said he saw a man running away from the TSBDD building after the shooting. It was not Lee Harvey Oswald, he claimed.

Worell was killed in a Dallas car smash in November, 1966.

Car salesman Albert Bogard told the Warren inquiry he took Oswald to a Dallas car lot in November, 1963. But he was nothing like the Oswald whose picture appeared in the papers later, said Bogard.

Bogard was badly beaten up after giving evidence. He was found passed in his car in the middle of a cemetery, in February, 1966.

Apart from post-humously being found guilty of killing Kennedy, Oswald was found guilty of murdering Dallas police officer Jefferson Tippit less than an hour after Kennedy's death.

Harold Russell, a witness to the Tippit killing, said he wasn't sure it was Oswald, whom he undercover for New York home apparently got Mrs. Earl Smith was told all about the prison. Interviewed by her friend Dorothy.

Mrs. Smith was found dead two days after Dorothy died. Cause unknown.

Gary Underhill, a CIA agent, told his colleagues he knew all about the assassination.

Underhill was shot in the head on May 8, 1964. Verdict: Suicide.

Mark Kulan, was a friend of nightclub owner Jack Ruby.

Kulan was found dead with his throat cut in a back alley, March, 1964.

Betty Macdonald, Marilyn Maygar and Rose Cheram were sisters in Ruby's nightclub.

Betty was arrested on a minor charge and was found dead, hanging with her torso of trousers round her neck, in a Dallas jail in January, 1964.

Marilyn was shot dead in a Houston hotel room in August, 1964.

Rose was killed by a hit-and-run driver, September, 1965.

George De Meareschmidt, who once befriended Oswald, told friends Kennedy had been killed by the FBI, and that Oswald was "a patsy"—a scapegoat.

Mohrenschmidt, according to some reports, was a CIA officer. He was in Cuba when the Mafia were allegedly being asked by the CIA to kill Cuban President Fidel Castro.

Mohrenschmidt's was found dead with gunshot wounds to the head last February. Verdict: Suicide.

David Ferrie, former U.S. Air Force pilot who, it was said, was flying arms into Cuba, was in New Orleans in 1963. Also there at that time was Mohrenschmidt.
