

The killing of President John F. Kennedy was a conspiracy that involved more than one assassin, Russian television viewers were informed by Soviet correspondent Valentin Zorin. "According to everything that is known," he said on a program about the assassination, "persons from the CIA and FBI had a hand in this crime."

L.A. Times

Sept 25, 1978