UPI denial ran in many newspapers across the country; however, their denial, by and large, killed the picture story and the Esquire press release story.