

4-6-68
NYT

Negro Vows to Kill a White, Then Shoots a Neighbor

MINNEAPOLIS, April 5
(UPI)—A Negro vowed to "kill the first white man he saw"
and then shot and killed a white neighbor on the street,
the police said today.

After the shooting, the man
was quoted as saying: "I wish I was dead. My king is dead."

The police said John Frank Murray, 25 years old, was shot
as he walked home from work last night. Witnesses said the assailant stood over Mr. Murray and fired five more bullets
into him.

The gunman was described as a young ex-convict.