BUNCHE TO STAND IN FOR THANT AT RITES

Special to The New York Times

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., April 5—Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, the ranking United States citizen in the United Nations Secretariat, will represent Secretary General Thant at the funeral of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on Tuesday, it was announced today.

Dr. Bunche, a Negro and a past associate of Dr. King in civil rights causes, is Under Secretary General for Special Political Affairs.

Mr. Thant left on an official visit to Europe just before the shooting of Dr. King became known.

There was general consternation and anger today among delegates of all shades of opinion over the murder. They did not wish to be quoted in connection with internal disturbances in the United States, but clearly none of them failed to be shocked by the killing and its implications of violence.

Dr. Bunche said in a personal statement issued here today that in Dr. King's death "the world has lost one of its most earnest, respected and commanding voices in the allied

Field Foundation Gives Million as King Tribute

The board of trustees of the Field Foundation voted yesterday to make a gift of $1-million toward the civil rights movement in the South in memory of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

A spokesman for the foundation said the money would go to seven organizations "which in purpose and method represent Dr. King's own constant and beautiful loyalty to the ideal of a beloved community united in and by justice, nonviolence and love."

The Field Foundation was established in 1940 by the late Marshall Field, industrialist, newspaper publisher and philanthropist. The work of the foundation, at 250 Park Avenue, is directed toward race relations and child welfare. The gift of $1-million is in addition to the $1.5-million the foundation gives annually to various civil rights organ-causes of peace, freedom and the dignity of man."

He called the assassination "a national disaster" and said the shot that caused it "has been heard around the world in
