

4-7-68

NYT

Many Events Canceled To Pay Dr. King Honor

The following are events canceled or postponed and institutions closed as a result of the slaying of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.:

TODAY

Performances of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus have been canceled until Wednesday.

Public libraries in all five boroughs, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Museum of Modern Art and the Museum of Natural History will be closed.

The Stanley Cup hockey playoff between the Chicago Black Hawks and the New York Rangers has been rescheduled for Tuesday night.

The performance of "Joe Egg" at the Brooks Atkinson Theater has been canceled.

The American and National Basketball Association playoff games have been postponed until Wednesday night.

Major league exhibition baseball games have been canceled.

North American Soccer League games in Los Angeles, San Diego, Oakland and Kansas City have been postponed.

TOMORROW

Major league baseball's opening games in Washington, Cincinnati and Houston have been postponed to Wednesday.

The New York City school system will remain open, but there will be memorial services for Dr. King on Tuesday.
