FBI Views Dead-End Clues To King Case Mystery Man By DON M'KEE

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)-Dead-end clues to a man who vanished without a trace apparently confronted FBI agents today in their investigation of the sniper slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

False leads multiplied in the hunt for Eric Starvo Galt, a mysterious quiet-talking man

where an Eric Galt lived for six weeks last fall.

GALT'S abandoned white Mustang was impounded last Thursday by the FBI in Atlanta. It fit cate license and he put the the description of a car seen same address, which was leaving the scene after King wrong. He wasn't here," said was killed April 4 by a sniper cherpes, who recalls Galt as firing from a rooming house in Memphis, Tenn.

Memphis witnesses described the suspected assassin, who registered as John Willard at a rooming house opposite King's motel, as about six feet and sandy-haired and "a clean, neat man."

No trace of Willard has apparently been found.

AN FBI alert for Eric Starvo Galt in a white Mustang was issued in Florida last Thursday, but was canceled. However, the FBI has continued a search for Galt's whereabouts or clues to his past.

After Cherpes disclosed what his boarder said of his work and background, Associated Press inquiries turned up blanks.

Is there a real Eric Starvo Galt? The FBI was asked, but declined comment. Neither would the FBI say why Galt was wanted, though the Florida alert had sought only to spot the man, not arrest him. No warrant had been issued then.

THE man known as Eric Galt had said he was employed at a Mississippi shipyard, but there was no record of him. He claimed he held Louisiana driver's license six years ago, but no record was found in the files.

There are mysteries within the mystery: Galt left the Birmingham boarding house last Oct. 7, saying he had a ship job in Mobile, Ala., but in Decem-whose last known address was a ber, he turned in the keys to his Birmingham rooming house. His former landlord said yesterday he had identified drawings shown by FBI agents as resem-bling Frie Coll address March 1, nearly seven "It's him," said Peter months after he left, and it ap-Cherpes, 72, who runs a two-story Southside boarding house parently vanished. The Birno forwarding address was left for Galt.

> "The papers said he went down March 1 to ask for a dupli-'nice and friendly, quiet."
