Report by F.B.I. Disputes Gray on Wiretaps

By JOHN M. CREWDSON Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25 - A confidential F.B.I. report apparently contradicts the testimony of L. Patrick Gray 3d last March that he had no knowledga or nearly 20 "national security" wiretaps that President Nixon had ordered on newsmen and officials of his Administra-

Following the first published rt port of the wiretap effort, Mr. Gray told the Senate Judiciary Committee, which was holding hearings on his nomination to become Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, that he had made an inquiry and found "no record of any such business.'

However, a copy of the confidential F.B.I. report, obtained by The New York Times, indicates that Mr. Gray, while the been advised in advance of his

New London Conn., went unanswered and efforts to reach him today at his home in Stonvolved at least four newsmen effort to Mr. Hoover, Henry A. Time story had any basis in and 13 Government officials, Kissinger, then the President's fact; is that correct?"

was first reported in Time magadiviser on national security

Stands by Testimony ing in support of his nomina-Attorney General.

nine Democrats, asked the acting F.B.I. head to respond to the report, which both the records on the wiretaps was apparently records on the matter relates,
the report, which both the

that he had examined the and one of his assistants. F.B.I.'s wiretap surveillance

The New York Times L. Patrick Gray 3d

this in the first place."

Nixon Approved Wiretans

ington, Conn., were unsuccessful.

Question by Kennedy

The existence of the wiretaps, which, between May 6 approved the wiretaps, which, between May 6 approved the wiretaps, and February, 1971, insponsibility for coordinating the press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the pressure of the wiretaps, which, between May 6 press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the pressure of the wiretaps, which, between May 6 press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the pressure of the wiretaps, which, between May 6 press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the pressure of the wiretaps, which, between May 6 press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the pressure of the wiretaps, which, between May 6 press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the pressure of the wiretaps, which, between May 6 press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the pressure of the wiretaps, which, between May 6 press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the pressure of the wiretaps, which, between May 6 press and had given joint responsibility for coordinating the pressure of the wiretaps, which, between May 6 pressure of the wiretaps, which are taps, whic azine on Feb. 26, 1973, shortly and now Secretary of State, before Mr. Gray began testify-and John N. Mitchell, then the

Mr. Gray's assertions that he ward M. Kennedy of Massachu-files to support the existence setts, one of the committee's of the wiretaps was apparently mony today."

Indeed any later, senature Ed-had found nothing in the F.B.I. that has been my testimony rial evidence in the Watergate consistently. That is my testical investigation.

But. he conceded he had

But the report, compiled after an internal inquiry ordered ator Kennedy noted that Richlast May by William D. Ruckels- ard G. Kleindienst, Mr. Mithaus, the next to take over the chell's successor as Attorney-F.B.I.'s top post, shows that Mr. General, had declared that Gray was provided with a spitter be now Mr. Mitchell had memo on Feb. 26, the day the neither he nor Mr. Mitchell had Time article appeared, that re-authorized any electronic surlated the known details of the veillance of newsmen, White disappearance of the wiretap House officials or others "as that date of the circumstances cation to his assertion that he surrounding the disappearance of the records, which included report had any basis in fact? authorizations for the wiretaps "I don't draw any kind of and summaries and logs of the qualification or overheard conversations.

The records were eventually replied. recovered by Mr. Ruckelshaus from the White House office of you are talking about-that we John D. Ehrlichman, about two are tapping our own telephones, signed on April 30 as President question? Nixon's chief domestic adviser.

cates that Mr. Gray, while the bureau's acting director, had records and found no evidence Mr. Hoover had been able to it." been advised in advance of his testimony of the by-then defunct surveillance operation.

A recent telephone message left at Mr. Gray's law offices in not going to do reconstruct much of the surtection in the about that "Mr. Hoover [J. Edgar veillance operation in the about that "Mr. Hoover [J. Edgar veillance operation in the about that "Mr. Gray's predecessor] is including data on 16 of the 17 down as the F.B.I.'s acting left at Mr. Gray's law offices in the advance of the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about that "Mr. Gray's predecessor] is including data on 16 of the 17 down as the F.B.I.'s acting left at Mr. Gray's law offices in the advance of the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about that "Mr. Gray's predecessor] is including the down as the F.B.I.'s acting the advance of the surtection in the about that "Mr. Gray's law offices in the advance operation in the about that "Mr. Gray's law of the surtection in the about that "Mr. Gray's law of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about that "Mr. Gray's law of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about that "Mr. Gray's predecessor] is including the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct much of the surtection in the about the missing reconstruct mu had been tapped.

President Nixon later ack- also available to Mr. Gray be Watergate conspirators.

Stands by Testimony

Mr. Gray replied under oath struggle between Mr. Hoover a denial. The answer is No, immediately Senator.'

During his interrogation, Sen-them intact for months.

records.

The report also notes that Mr. Gray was advised before asked, attach the same qualifihad no reason to believe the > implication from that at all, Senator," he weeks after Mr. Ehrlichman re- is that really the thrust of this

"That practice has never According to the F.B.I. re-come to my attention. I am left at Mr. Gray's law offices in not going to do something like individuals whose telephones that he had destroyed certain that he had destroyed certain materials taken from the White This information, judging House safe of E. Howard Hunt from the bureau's report, was Jr. one of the seven convicted Jr., one of the seven convicted clear that he could not be confirmed.

Mr. Gray told the Watergate "That is correct, sir," Mr. committee that he had de-Gray replied. "I said I person-stroyed the Hunt papers, some ally checked the record, and of which might have been mate-

Asked whether after learning lied both in telling Justice Deof the Time account, Mr. Gray partment officials that he had had felt that he "ought to talk not read the files before burn-White House and the Justice sent to the White House before to anybody at the White House ing them and in telling a member of the Watergate committee without substance.

The control of an internectine white House has already issued that he had destroyed the papers that the result of an internectine White House has already issued that he had destroyed the papers that the had destroyed the papers the papers that the had destroyed the papers that t after receiving them. In reality, he had kept