

20 - ~~F~~ - 67

10/20/67

WASH. (AP) — A federal grand jury in Washington today returned a 12-page indictment against a former FBI agent, charging him with conspiracy to obstruct justice and with covering up the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. The indictment, returned by the grand jury in the U.S. District Court here, charges that the defendant, James Earl Ray, conspired with several other persons to obstruct justice and to cover up the assassination of Dr. King. The indictment also charges that Ray conspired with several other persons to obstruct justice and to cover up the assassination of Dr. King. The indictment also charges that Ray conspired with several other persons to obstruct justice and to cover up the assassination of Dr. King.

—UPI Photo

Wash. D.C. News