

N.Y. POST, MONDAY
6-10-68 (P. 35)
The Lyons Den

6/10/68

LEONARD LYONS

As soon as Sirhan Sirhan was identified in Los Angeles, Ambassador Goldberg had the public gallery at the UN cleared for the first time in UN history—to protect the Jordanian delegate . . . Mart Crowley turned down $750,000 for "Boys In The Band," to accept CBS' $250,000 plus 10 percent of the gross. He'll produce the film . . . Curt Jurgens will do "Plaza Suite" in Vienna . . . Bergdorf's will introduce a men's barber and cigar shop.

Josephine Baker flew from Paris to attend the RFK funeral services, then flew right back. Bobby had helped her get a U. S. visa a few months ago . . . During lunch at the Four Seasons Christine Jorgensen mentioned plans to write a Danish Cook Book . . . Ewa Aulin, the Swedish youngster who'll have the title role in "Candy" will next do Warners' "Two Times Two" . . . Ralph Bunche, Jr., is being inducted into the Army this week.

JUNE 7?

J. Edgar Hoover was in N. Y. Friday night for the final plans to announce the arrest of the fugitive sought in the killing of Martin Luther King Jr. During dinner at Le Cote Basque Hoover said, of the King and RFK assassinations: "There will be more unless we have three things—apprehension, quick trial and punishment appropriate to the crime."

David Hoffman phoned that young hood would bear victim.