

CITY NEWS

Tuesday, Dec. 27, 1966

A-13

Ruby Still Seriously Ill

Jack Ruby remained in serious condition Tuesday, largely unchanged, as he entered his 18th day of treatment for cancer at Parkland Hospital.

In the routine report on Ruby's condition, doctors elaborated only to say he was "resting comfortably" although feeling weak.

Ruby was hospitalized Dec. 9 for suspected pneumonia, but tests subsequently revealed he had cancer in his chest wall and pancreas.