

1-4-67
DTH

THE LONG RIDE HOME

Three of Jack Ruby's relatives—Mrs. Eileen Kamin-sky of Chicago, left, Earl Ruby of Detroit, and Mrs. Eva Grant of Dallas—sat quietly at Dallas' Love Field Tuesday night as they waited for the airplane that was to take their brother on his final trip. Jack Ruby, the 55-year-old nightclub owner once convicted of killing accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Os-wald, died Tuesday in Parkland Hospital as he awaited a new trial.—Staff Photo.