Black issued a brief order of denial in which he said: "I do not feel justified in granting a stay which will interfere with the orderly and customary processes of the courts of Texas in attempts to give Ruby a fair a and prompt determination of his, rights."

Ruby's attorney had asked that the sanity hearing be deferred until a formal appeal in the Ruby case is filed later in the Supreme Court.

The stay request questioned whether Ruby could be compelled to undergo the hearing when represented by a lawyer he does not want.

The formal appeal planned for later also will ask the Supreme Court to rule whether Judge Joe
