They say they will appear in court Monday morning as directed by State Dist. Judge Louis T. Holland but that they will not call Ruby to the stand and they will present no witnesses and no evidence to support their earlier claims that Ruby is insane.

Holland turned down defense motions Friday which would have forestalled the hearing and would have returned the case to the Texas court of criminal appeals, which ordered the sanity hearing before it would consider the appeal of Ruby's conviction.

Ruby, 55, a former night club operator, did not appear at the pre-trial hearing Friday. He has been in jail since the fatal shooting of Oswald, named by the Warren Commission as the assassin of president John F. Kennedy, in November 1963.

If a jury finds Ruby sane, the appeals court then would consider defense arguments that his murder trial contained reversible errors and that the conviction should be set aside. If
