Lawyers Say Ruby Trial Unfair Due To Publicity AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Jack there was a 'Circus atmosphere.' He also says that he thought if he had to go through the trial again that he would principally because of uncontrolled news coverage and a book-writing trial judge. Arguments on Ruby's appeal of his death sentence for the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald—identified by the Warbert Commission as President John F. Kennedy's killer—beginned to the trial again that he would admit only a dozen reporters on a pool basis to the courtroom. Brown himself concludes that the world the reversing the property of the ground of excessive news coverage. Based On Manuscript and the ground of excessive news coverage.

Defense attorney Elimen Gertz, Chicago, based much of his argument for a new trial on the unpublished manuscript of a book written by Dallas Dist. Judge Joe Brown.

"Judge Brown had strange notion he could not control news reporters and television people in and around the Dallas County Courthouse to eliminate what he himself called the 'circus atmosphere'," Gertz said. Then Gertz quoted from what he said was Brown's unpublished manuscript.

"Judge Brown says here several times that during the trial
