

Subpoena Lawyer in JFK 'Plot'

NEW ORLEANS, March 9 (AP)—A grand jury moves into the controversial Kennedy assassination probe today with a subpoena for a lawyer who once included Lee Harvey Oswald among his clients.

The Orleans Parish (county) grand jury ordered Dean A. Andrews Jr. to appear at its secret session for questioning today.

It marked the grand jury's first step into the investigation, which Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison contends will prove that a conspiracy was hatched in New Orleans which culminated in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas, Nov. 22, 1963.

The Warren Commission said Oswald, a former New Orleans resident, shot the president and there was no credible evidence any one else was involved.

Andrews, who said he handled a few minor legal matters for Oswald in the summer of 1963, told the Warren Commission that—shortly after the assassination—a man he knew as Clay Bertrand telephoned him and asked that he represent Oswald.

The FBI could never find a Clay Bertrand. Garrison contends that Clay L. Shaw, a prosperous New Orleans businessman, used the name Bertrand as an alias. Shaw said he has never used an alias.
