

The Extradition Battle

The legal aide to Governor Ronald Reagan finally decided last week to listen to E. E. Bradley's plea that he not be extradited to Louisiana to face Jim Garrison's charges that Bradley did conspire to kill President John F. Kennedy. L. A. Times Reporter Jerry Cohen made much copy from the fact that Bradley gave AFFADAVITS that he was not in Dallas on the day of the assassination. What did Cohen expect Bradley to do? Admit his guilt?

This editor has written to the Governors of Ohio, California and Texas in an effort to see just how many extraditions a Governor denies each year. We got no satisfactory answers from any of the Governors.

There is one slight hope that Reagan may not protect Bradley much longer. We hear that 600,000 persons have signed a recall petition against Reagan. 700,000 signatures are needed to have a recall election. If enough Californians shout loud enough, Reagan might decide to permit E. E. Bradley to make his statements from the witness stand in New Orleans.

The time is now to put pressure on Reagan. Write letters or send wires to Governor Ronald Reagan now urging the return of E. E. Bradley to New Orleans to stand trial.
