later, other officers arrived on the scene.

BARBARA stated a short time later she was questioned by the police at which time she stated she furnished them the same information she has furnished above. She stated the police then began searching the area around her house at which time she assisted them in the search. She stated she found one empty bullet lying under the window on the side of the house facing Patton Street. She stated she gave this bullet to one of the police officers.

She stated she then began searching the area for additional empty bullets, but did not find any.

BARBARA stated later that same evening at approximately 7 or 7:30 p.m., she was escorted by the police to the Dallas, Texas, Police Department where she viewed several men in a police line-up. She stated she picked out a man who she identified as the young man she saw walking across the front of her yard carrying a pistol and trying to empty it. She stated this individual was later identified as LEE HARVEY OSWALD.
