JUANITA BUCHANNON, owner, El Dorado Lounge, 1010 North Haskell, advised as follows on December 16, 1963:

She had first met WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF, known to her as "SCOTTIE", about seven or eight months ago when he started hanging around the bar and making a "big splash." She described him as a "con man" and she knew of no association between DUFF, RUBY and OSWALD. She did not know OSWALD but knew RUBY as she had been a former employee of his when he owned the Sovereign Club. She knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD based on her acquaintance with RUBY.

On December 17, 1963, she advised DUFF had a former friend named ANDRE ANGELES (phonetic) whom she described as a white male, age 31 - 32, height six feet, weight 165 lbs, thin build, red hair, blue eyes, freckles on face and wearing horn rimmed glasses. ANDRE has called the El Dorado Lounge from Washington, D. C. approximately eleven times in recent months attempting to locate one RIED TIPPINS (phonetic), also a friend of DUFFS.

At the time of the last call, December 16, 1963, ANDRE advised he was in Washington, D. C. using the name DON MOON, telephone number 481-7057. She asked ANDRE if he had seen "SCOTTIE". ANDRE replied words to the effect "No, and I'd rather not talk about it." She recalled ANDRE had known JACK RUBY and had mentioned gambling with him.

The only other unusual incident she recalled was the fact ANDRE called her from Washington, D. C. the Sunday prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY telling her he was flying to Dallas on Friday, November 22, 1963, with a lot of money and wondered if she and her husband would meet him at the airport. They did not meet him and she did not know whether ANDRE had come to Dallas.
