GEORGE A. BOUHE, apartment O, 4740 Homer Street, advised on July 13, 1963, he entered Mexico at Laredo, Texas, on a vacation trip accompanied by MAX CLARK, Ft. Worth, Texas, attorney, Mrs. CLARK and a Mrs. ANNA MELLER, 4930 1/2 LaVista Drive (the wife of TEOFIL MELLER). This party re-entered the United States on either July 24, 1963, or July 25, 1963, at McAllen, Texas.

During this trip this party spent the first night at Torreon, Mexico, and the following day drove to Mazatlan, Mexico, where they spent approximately five days at the LaPlaya Hotel. From this point they drove to Guadalajara and spent approximately three days at the Camino Real Hotel. Upon leaving Guadalajara, they drove to Matehuala, spent one night and drove on the following day to Alice, Texas, where they stayed at the Motel Americana.

BOUHE advised this trip was purely a vacation and during the trip they met no one by appointment and during this trip he did not say "or even think" of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He advised he was in Mexico once previously about three years ago when he spent part of one day shopping at Matamoras.

BOUHE stated that on or about Thursday, November 7, 1963, he traveled by Transcontinental bus to Indianapolis, Indiana, again on a visit to friends, and returned to Dallas on Tuesday, November 12, 1963. He recalled he arrived in Dallas at 6:29 A.M. He made this trip alone and during the trip visited with Mrs. ELLEN PICK and Miss NINA PICK at 210 East 51st Street, Indianapolis. He advised his making this trip had no connection whatever with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that these individuals have no knowledge of OSWALD whatever.

He advised he made one telephone call to Indianapolis from his residence, telephone # TA 7-2288, about three or four days prior to his making this trip to advise these individuals of his pending visit.

He advised the only other travel he has done during 1963 was a trip to Houston and Galveston, Texas, made during about the second or third weeks of September, 1963. On this occasion he drove Mr. TEOFIL MELLER and another couple on their vacation. He
