

The Ocean Post

s.s. ROTTERDAM

MARCH 10, 1977

CAPTAIN A.H. LAGARY

DOMESTIC NEWS

WASHINGTON: Gene transplant research will help scientist answer some of the basic riddles of hereditary chemistry and provide a more rational basis for attacking disease, a Stanford University biochemist predicted Tuesday.

WASHINGTON: President Carter promised senate Democrats Tuesday, that he and not Paul Warnke make the key decisions in disarmament accords.

CHICAGO: Frustration over his lost girlfriend led Gary Gilmore on his murder spree and he would have kept killing had police not caught him, the condemned murderer told Play Boy magazine.

NEW YORK: The brightest job prospect in several years await 1977 college graduates in science engineering and business, the College Placement Council reported Tuesday.

WASHINGTON: A constitutional law professor testified Tuesday, that President Carter's government reorganization plan would revive the imperial presidency and give him the kind of powers that led to Watergate.

WARRENSVILLE HEIGHTS, OHIO: A black gunman, with an alleged hangup about white people, held a white police captain hostage for a second day Tuesday, demanding that President Carter hear his grievances by telephone.

WASHINGTON: Failure to hold industry to air quality standards could mean tens of millions of cases of disease and asthma attacks among Americans in the big cities, a physician with the American Lung Association said Tuesday.

WASHINGTON: The House accepted the resignation of Rep. Henry Gonzalez, a Texas Chairman, of its Assassination Committee Tuesday and Rep. Louis Stokes a leader in the Congressional Black Caucus was named to succeed him.

WASHINGTON: A Spokesman for the maritime industry urged Tuesday, that Congress pass legislation to set safety standards for both foreign and American tankers, that carry oil to US ports.

WASHINGTON: The Republican failed in a preliminary fourth to substitute a permanent tax cut for President Carter's tax rebate Tuesday and the House prepared to send the Senate a bill, that will give the 50 dollars rebate to almost every citizen.

TOWER CITY, PENNSYLVANIA: The families of five coal miners, missing for a week in the depths of brookside mountain, refused Tuesday to accept a decision by rescue workers that the men were dead.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

BUCHAREST, ROMANIA:

Earthquake survivors buried scores of their dead Tuesday, but hundreds of other victims of the temblor, that wrecked this capital, lay unidentified in the Morgue courtyard.

PARIS: France Tuesday threatened economic reprisals against the United States, unless the Concorde supersonic jetliner is granted landing rights in New York. The warning came as manufacturers of the Concorde prepared on two fronts to overcome New York States opposition to permitting the plane to use Kennedy Airport.

LONDON: Heathrow airport cargo workers said Tuesday, the armed bandits, who escaped with about 1.5 million dollars in currency and diamonds Monday night, simply walked through an unlocked door to stage the heist