Doubts Oswald Guilt

New 'Dallas' Book Says 3 Men Killed JFK

NEW YORK — A new attack on the findings of the Warren Commission purports to show that three gunmen participated in the assassination of President Kennedy and that Lee Harvey Oswald probably was not one of them.

The new challenge to the commission's conclusions that Oswald was the killer, alone and unaided, is contained in "Six Seconds in Dallas" by Josiah Thompson, which, appears in excerpted form in the current issue of the Saturday Evening Post. It will be published in book form on Nov. 27 by Bernard Geis Associates.

THE EDITOR of the Post, William A. Emerson, Jr., said: "With painstaking care and formidable logic, Thompson demolishes the Warren Report."

Thompson, 32, a philosophy teacher at Hacerford College, argues that detailed analysis of pictures taken during the assassination, together with the testimony of certain witnesses, indicate four shots were fired at Kennedy's car from three different locations.

The Warren Commission found that three shots were fired from the southeast corner of the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository.

According to Thompson's "reconstruction" of the assassination, one shot emanated from either the Dal-Tex building or the Dallas County Records Building at the east end of Dealey Plaza. That shot, Thompson asserts, struck Gov. John B. Connally

Jr. of Texas, who was seated in front of Kennedy.

ANOTHER BULLET, Thompson said, originated from the Depository and struck Kennedy in the back. Still another, also from the Depository, struck him in the head, and a fourth shot — from behind a fence to the right and in front of the President — also hit him in the head, Thompson says.

"Three assassins fired four shots from three different locations," Thompson writes.

(Another book, "Accessories After the Fact," by Sylvia Meagher, to be published by Bobbs-Merrill, also disputes the Warren Commission's findings and condemns the commission as "blatantly" biased.)
