Dear Sylvia:

Thought you'd enjoy seeing yourself in a Bibliography. This is a proof ~~from~~ from Robert Sherrill's book on the ease with which persons ^{in the USA} can buy guns, and our country's belief (UGH!!!!) that everyone is entitled to be armed and shoot any intruder.

I'll be leaving McKay about the middle of September to be managing editor of Liveright, so I'm not sure I can get you a copy of the book when it comes out. I'll try, though.

Now that I'm leaving I suddenly realize that you work very near me (I'M at 750 Third Ave between 46th and 47th), and we possibly could have met at lunch because I seldom go out at night for various reasons. But 1973 has not been a very good year for me, so I've been kind of withdrawn.

Eventually I hope to see you.

After Watergate and assorted related things that have ~~been~~ come out, I am convinced more than ~~ever~~ ever that you, Marjorie Field and your other "critics" ~~were~~ were absolutely right in your conclusions about the Kennedy assassination. Everything points to a conspiracy.

LOVE and PEACE,

Mary
