Dear Sir,

I am told that an article discussing the autopsy examination of our late President John F Kennedy appeared in a recent issue of your publication. If so, that article would be of urgent interest to me in connection with a book I am now writing. I should be most grateful if you would send me the appropriate article or the issue in which it appeared by airmail if possible, together with a bill for the charges and postage. I shall send you a check by return mail, without fail. With many thanks,

Yours sincerely,
