Dear Ms. Meagher,

I read your book Accessories After the Fact last autumn, after waiting 4 months for the library to find it. I see in the Books In Print catalog for 1972-73 that it is out of print, as is your index to the Warren Commission's Hearings & Exhibits (Scarecrow press, 1966). After sending a letter to Chicago Book Mart asking for it and other out-of-print critiques of the WCR, I found that they already'd sold their copy of it, and they sent me my check back.

It occurred to me that perhaps I should try to order the book Accessories and/or Index from you directly. I am studying the Warren Report questions now, and your works are to say the least, widely praised; to say the most, excellent and thoroughgoing analyses. You alone of the theorists seem to have avoided falling into Mr. Garrison's camp back in 1967-68, you and Professor Thompson, that is. Do you have any copies of the two books you could spare? If so, I would gladly pay cost & postage for them.

Currently fashionable in some circles is the work of a Mae Brussell, who has string every act of mayhem of the last thirty years into one mammoth conspiracy; she is purportedly a brilliant researcher, and her articles run intermittently (and interminably) in the Realist. After reading "who kidnapped Martha Mitchell?", and other scenarios pasting Watergate, the last three assassinations, and possibly the comet Kohoutek together under one tent, I longed to read some rational analysis for a change.

Hope I've not imposed on your time. If possible, I would like to buy your two books from you, plus postage. Hoping it is possible, I remain,

Sincerely,
Kenneth C. Spell
