

LILLIAN LANGENSTEIN, 423 State Street, advised that she is bookkeeper at Crescent City Garage, 618 Magazine Street, and that while several of the employees of the Reilly Coffee Company, next door, come to the garage to get soft drinks and read magazines during their lunch hours, she has no recollection of ever having observed an individual who resembles the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She advised that the name OSWALD and the name HIDEELL is not familiar.

She stated that she recalls a young man who patronizes the garage by the name GIBSON, who either works for the Border Patrol or the Harbor Patrol, who has a wife who is blonde and is definitely of German descent. This German woman speaks very little English and has a baby girl and are probably the individuals referred to by her employer as coming to the garage office about two months ago. She advised that she conversed with GIBSON about ten days ago and he at that time stated that the little girl was quite ill. She said GIBSON does not resemble the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

757

9/197

on 11/23/63 at New Orleans, Louisiana File # NO 89-69
by Special Agent S. L. M. SHEARER, JR. & MICHAEL F. CAMPBELL/lrs Date dictated 11/23/63